

Autumn Term 2024 Year 1 and 2

Connected Curriculum Theme: Peace and Conflict

Attitudes: Respect for people and human rights. Causes of disagreement and conflict and personal classroom and household levels. Explore some ways of avoiding, managing, and resolving conflict

Focus: History

Our Big Question: How can we show empathy and support others?

Some Facts (Knowledge & Understanding)

As historians children will explore the lives of Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole. Learning about Florence Nightingale helps children begin to understand the concept of historical figures and their impact on the world. These significant people are inspiring figures whose qualities of compassion, bravery, and determination to serve are valuable lesson. Their stories teach children the importance of caring for others and showing empathy. Learning about Mary Seacole helps children appreciate diversity and the importance of contributions from people of different backgrounds and cultures.

As Geographers children will look at a range of different maps- locating where the significant people were from and their travel routes.

Location/Place - countries, continents and oceans on world maps.

Brave Changer Skills

Empathy: Show awareness of, and concern for, people’s feelings. Show interest in, and concern for, others outside immediate circle and in contexts different to own.

Co-operation and Conflict resolution: Play and work cooperatively. Help to ensure that everyone in own group is included. Begin to show tact and diplomacy.

Sticky Knowledge
